Amsterdam And Paris Coach Tour

Overview Amsterdam And Paris Coach Tour

Amsterdam and Paris, two of Europe's most iconic cities, promise an unforgettable journey through history, culture, and charm. Amsterdam is a city of canals, art, and vibrant neighbourhoods, renowned for its world-class museums like the Rijksmuseum and Van Gogh Museum, while the enchanting city of Paris, known for its romantic allure, offers iconic landmarks like the Eiffel Tower and the Louvre Museum. These cities, steeped in history and cultural richness, make for a perfect blend of exploration and leisure, drawing travellers from all corners of the globe. In Amsterdam, you'll discover the beauty of its canals, historic architecture, and artistic heritage. From the unique windmills of Zaanse Schans to the picturesque fishing village of Volendam, the city offers plenty of traditional Dutch experiences. The charm of Amsterdam's neighbourhoods, bike rides along the canals, and vibrant street scenes create an atmosphere unlike any other. Paris, often dubbed the "City of Love," enchants visitors with its romantic ambience, stunning boulevards, and iconic monuments. The Eiffel Tower offers sweeping views of the city, while the River Seine presents a tranquil way to see Paris's historic bridges and landmarks. With its impressive museums, including the Louvre, and charming districts like the Latin Quarter, Paris perfectly blends history, art, and modern culture. Whether savouring a gourmet meal, cruising along the Seine, or shopping at world-famous boutiques, Paris promises an experience of a lifetime.

Day 1 Arrival in Europe – Transfer to Hotel

Welcome to Europe! Upon arrival, you will be greeted by our guide and transferred to your hotel. Spend some time relaxing and orienting yourself with the upcoming schedule. Check the informative posters at the reception for important details, including the meeting point, time, and guide's name. Get ready for a wonderful journey ahead!

Day 2 Volendam, Zaanse Schans, and Amsterdam City Tour

Today's highlights include a visit to the picturesque village of Volendam, Holland's famous fishing village. Have fun wearing traditional Volendam clothing and capturing memorable photos. You can also take a boat trip to Marken, known for its beautiful wooden houses. Next, head to Zaanse Schans, a historic part of the Netherlands filled with traditional wooden houses, windmills, and workshops. Experience Dutch traditions such as clog making and cheese production. Later, we'll explore Amsterdam, known as the "Venice of the North." Cruise along its scenic canals, visit renowned museums like the Rijksmuseum and Van Gogh Museum, or enjoy a bike ride through its charming streets. We'll also learn about diamond cutting techniques and have dinner at Rembrandtplein, a vibrant area near the red-light district. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 3 Amsterdam to Brussels, Bruges, and Paris

After breakfast, we'll leave for Brussels. In the Belgian capital, we'll visit the Grand Place and the Atomium, an international symbol of Brussels. Then, we head to Bruges, the charming Flemish city often called the Venice of the North, known for its beautiful canals and historic architecture. After a scenic lunch, we'll continue our journey to Paris, where we'll arrive by the end of the day.

Day 4 Paris City Tour, Eiffel Tower, and Seine River Cruise

Start the day with a guided city tour of Paris, including a visit to the iconic Eiffel Tower. Marvel at its beauty as we climb to the second floor for stunning panoramic views of the city. Afterward, enjoy a scenic boat ride along the River Seine, passing some of Paris's most famous landmarks, including the Notre-Dame Cathedral. Spend the afternoon at leisure, exploring Paris on your own or relaxing in one of its many charming cafes. In the evening, enjoy dinner in the Latin Quarter, known for its wide variety of international cuisines. Overnight at the hotel.

Day 5 Paris at Leisure

Today is free for you to explore Paris at your own pace. Optional tours include a visit to the Louvre Museum, the world's largest and most famous museum, home to masterpieces like the Mona Lisa. You can also visit Benlux for some of Paris's best-known perfumes. For those interested, an optional excursion to Disneyland Paris is available.

Day 6 Shopping and Departure

After breakfast, the day is free for shopping in Paris's fashionable boutiques. Later, transfer to the airport in a private vehicle for your return flight, taking with you memories of an incredible European adventure.
