Singapore & Kuala Lumpur Ex Cochin

Overview Singapore & Kuala Lumpur Ex Cochin

This island city-state is famous for its unique blend of cultures—Malay, Chinese, and Indian communities, among many others, are well-repped. It's exactly this mixing of influences that gives Singapore a vibe all its own (and makes for a pretty amazing dining scene, too). There's world-class restaurants, sure, but you can't miss checking out the street food at any one of its famous hawker centres.

Day 1 Arrival at Singapore MBS Sky Park + Gardens by the bay

Arrival at Singapore International airport & transferred to hotel. Check in to hotel, Evening proceed for Gardens by the bay and MBS Sky Park. Discover unparalleled views of Singapore with a ticket to the Skypark Observation Deck at the top of Marina Bay Sands. The deck sits 655 feet (200 meters) in the air and is one of the largest observation decks in the world. Enjoy sweeping views of Singapore, spotting landmarks such as the downtown area, Gardens by the Bay, and even all the way to Indonesia on a clear day. Later visit - Gardens by the bay - Avoid the hassle of waiting in long lines and instead get direct entry to Singapore's magical Gardens By the Bay with this ticket. Once inside, enjoy 101 hectares of beautiful gardens, including each of the three waterfront gardens: Bay South, Bay East and Bay Central. Marvel at the wide range of plants on display and the artistry with which they are presented. Return back to hotel and stay overnight at hotel.
