Port Blair Retreat

Overview Port Blair Retreat

The Andaman and Nicobar Islands, a tropical paradise nestled in the Bay of Bengal, offer an unforgettable escape with their palm-fringed beaches, clear turquoise waters, and unmatched tranquility. Port Blair, the capital of these islands, is the gateway to this beautiful archipelago. A visit to the Cellular Jail, an iconic symbol of India's freedom struggle, is a must, where the powerful Light & Sound Show brings to life the stories of India's freedom fighters. The evenings here are just as captivating, with Marina Park offering a peaceful place to unwind while soaking in the views of the sea. A short ferry ride to Havelock Island reveals some of the most picturesque beaches in Asia, including Radha Nagar Beach, with its powdery white sands and crystal-clear waters. Known for its serene atmosphere, this beach is perfect for relaxation and swimming. For those seeking adventure, the island also offers scuba diving, kayaking, and a chance to explore vibrant coral reefs. Another must-visit is Elephanta Beach, famous for snorkeling, jet skiing, and its vibrant underwater ecosystem. Neil Island, another jewel in this tropical paradise, is home to the stunning Bharatpura and Laxmanpura beaches, where visitors can enjoy calm, shallow waters and remarkable coral views. The Natural Bridge, a geological marvel formed by corals, is one of the most unique attractions on the island. Whether you're diving into the azure waters, exploring the beaches, or simply relaxing in the unspoiled beauty, the Andaman Islands offer a perfect mix of history, adventure, and natural beauty for all types of travelers.
